DRESHER GROWTH IS CONTINUOUS

Notable Progress of This Firm Since Its Advent in Cleaning Business Astounds Many.

Enlarged Dept's, New Dept's, Much New Equipment, Added Whenever Necessary For Betterment of the Art.

Some folk attribute the swift and immense growth of Dresher Brothers' Dry Cleaning & Dyeing plant at 2211-2213 Farnam St. to luck.

Yet, if you were to know of the continual effort made by every member of the Dresher concern from proprietors down to office boy, you would attribute the "Dresher Success" to ambition and not to luck.

Dresher Brothers, for instance, one month will install some very expensive piece of equipment or other, only to discard it in a few months should something more promising show up. Dreshers have burned the "Midnight Oil" in copious quantities. Many a night they have labored until well into the dawn. They've planned, striven, and have contributed mental and physical labor that would utterly wear out ordinary individuals, but the results have indeed been gratifying.

The latest move of Dreshers, the enormous building now being added directly west of their present establishment, will not be the latest "Dresher" innovation by any means. If conditions warrant, more buildings will be erected; Dreshers will stop at nothing if they think the public would appreciate and support the idea.

Now, for a brief resume of Dreshers' career in the dry cleaning business. A few years ago they opened the present establishment at 2211-2213 Farnam street in the face of many a kind advisor's advice. "Better stay in the tailoring business and let it go at that; Omaha has enough cleaners," said the well inclined ones. But Dreshers thought otherwise and their enterprises are today among the top notch establishments of the United States.

Good Work and Lots Of It—That motto keeps Dreshers busy and happy. Dreshers maintain down-town agencies at the Brandeis Stores, at the Burgess-Nash Co. stores, and at their own Dresher, The Tailor, establishment at 1515 Farnam street. Dreshers are sending work to every direction of America daily. Dreshers were the first to specialize on the idea of paying express or parcel post charges one way on any sized shipment to any point. Dreshers were (and are now) the only cleaning people in Omaha who thought of making hats. Dreshers have all and do everything that an up and doing cleaning establishment should have and do.

Better think of the name "Dresher" the very next time a cleaning need presents itself. Think of it also when you have repairing, altering, hat making, feather working, fur working or rug cleaning to do.

Dreshers' phone number is Tyler 245.

Dreshers have a big fleet of Delivery wagons and autos. Dreshers issue a complete illustrated booklet and price list which is yours for the asking.

HIGH LINE CUT-OFF AUTO ROUTE NAMED

New Road Branching from Lincoln Highway at Valley Goes West Through Several Counties.

OPENS NEW ROUTE TO OMAHA

The High Line Cut-Off is the name of a new automobile route through several counties which was determined upon at a meeting in Ulysses, Neb., last week. It branches off from the Lincoln Highway at Central City, goes through a number of thriving towns in several counties and joins the Lincoln Highway again at Valley.

The road is marked by means of a fourteen-inch white band with a five-inch orange band at top and bottom. The following persons were appointed to mark the road in the vicinity and through the various towns:

L. C. Staats of Central City.
P. J. Rehagius of Hordville.
F. D. Johnson of Polk.
C. V. Nelson of Stromsburg.
George Dobson of Ulysses.
F. E. Tomes of Dwight.
W. C. Elmendorf of Valparaiso.
W. M. Westman of Weston.
Edward Brodenberg of Wahoo.
Christ Burestette of Mead.

The new cut-off opens up a good route into Omaha from a number of towns.

Newman Shows Speed to Milwaukee

Among the most elaborate opening days ever staged by an American motor car dealer was that of Harry Newman, Chalmers dealer in Milwaukee, on the evening of December 2. Mr. Newman, who has been one of the most successful dealers in Chicago for the last few years, signalled the opening of his Milwaukee salesroom by a banquet to Milwaukee and Wisconsin automobile dealers. Over 500 dealers attended the dinner, which was held at the Hotel Pfister in Milwaukee. Among Mr. Newman's guests were dealers in competing lines from Milwaukee and surrounding territory.

On the speakers' list were the following notables: Governor Phillips of Wisconsin, Mayor Bading of Milwaukee, Hugh Chalmers, president of the Chalmers company; Paul Smith, vice president of the selling division; F. A. Willis, assistant sales manager; C. C. Hincley, chief engineer; E. G. Westlake, Chicago Post, and James Levy, Chalmers dealer in Chicago.

Sherman Takes the Entire Bond Issue, but Has No Returns

Charles R. Sherman, president of the Sherman & McConnell Drug company is usually ready to help a friend in need. Therefore, when a youth of some sixteen summers came in and told him that he was temporarily in financial embarrassment and wished to float a bond issue of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) with his "face" as security, the ready-to-help Mr. Sherman promptly agreed to take the whole issue.

The purpose of the loan the youth explained was to buy a stock of newspapers. "He told me," says Mr. Sherman in a letter, "that he was engaged in the important reformatory work of circulating The Bee and needed the $1.50 to get his papers."

The enterprising youth gave a name, but in the bright lexicons of the newsboys of Omaha it is not found. Neither is the youth found. Neither is the one bond, fifty kopecks visible to the naked eye.

"Hereafter I shall have to consider November 23 an unlucky day," Mr. Sherman's letter concludes.

The young impostor's story was a pure fabrication. Newsboys don't need money to pay for their papers in advance.

Quarrels With Wife of Six Months, Then Shoots Self in Head

Because he quarreled with his wife of six months, Donald Diamond, 412 North Sixteenth street, shot himself with a .33 caliber revolver yesterday. He inflicted a scalp wound and was taken to St. Joseph hospital, where an ice bag was placed on his head.

The quarrel started Friday evening and Mrs. Diamond went to the home of her sister, Mrs. H. D. Clark, 4601 Evans street. Her husband followed her and tried to compromise the differences. Both Diamond and his wife spent the night at the Clark residence and this morning he again sought a reconciliation. When his wife refused he secured the revolver and shot himself, but was prevented from firing a second time by his brother-in-law. He had written the following note: "Dear Emma: I love you and have forgiven you. Goodbye sweet heart." Diamond is employed as operator at the Cameraphone Motion Picture theater.

Mrs. Joy Morton is Buried Beside the Body of Her Father

At the funeral of Mrs. Joy Morton, held at noon at Trinity cathedral, the services were conducted by Bishop Arthur L. Williams, Dean James A. Tancock and Rev. W. W. Barnes. The latter came up from Nebraska City, the early home of the Morton family, and Mrs. Morton was really a member of his parish, although a resident of Chicago at the time of her death Thursday.

Besides her husband, her brother-in-law, Mark Morton, was here from Chicago for the funeral; also a daughter, Mrs. Joseph M. Cudahy of Chicago, and a son, Sterling Morton of Kansas City. The Omaha relatives present included a brother, Dr. F. W. Lake, and family, and members of the Deuel family.

An auto procession followed the body to the grave in Prospect Hill cemetery, where Dean Tancock conducted the burial. The body will rest beside that of her father, the late Field Marshal Earl Roberts.

Bryce Heads British Pilgrims. LONDON, Dec. 11.—Viscount Bryce, former British ambassador at Washington, has been unanimously elected president of the Pilgrims of Great Britain, in succession to the late Field Marshal Earl Roberts.

War Bride Secures Divorce When Her Hubby Stays Away

Mrs. Eulalie G. Stevens, 18 years old, yesterday secured a divorce from Alfred C. Stevens, who, she testified, left her in the midst of their honeymoon to go to war with the British troops in France. Stevens lived with his bride seven weeks, she declared, leaving home last February. She has had no letter from him, she said, but had learned of his military career through friends.

The young war widow declared she desired a divorce in order to be free to study nursing in a hospital. The decree was awarded on grounds of non-support and cruelty by District Judge Sears.
